

"No matter what you choose, build stuff and be around smart people"

- Sam Altman
Former President, Y Combinator

The start-up guide is an initiative to put forward a framework that budding entrepreneurs can use for building a business. It is an amalgamation of events and sessions we have seen in the past at E-Cell and learning from many books / articles / programs / webinars by founders and investors.