

Forbes

This magazine features original articles on finance, industry, investing, and marketing topics. It also reports on related subjects such as technology, communications, science, politics, and law. The magazine is well known for its lists and rankings, including of the richest Americans (the Forbes 400), of the world's top companies (the Forbes Global 2000), 30 under 30, World's 100 Most Powerful Women, and the World's Billionaires.

It's motto is "Change the World"

WIRED

This magazine focuses on how emerging technologies affect culture, the economy, and politics. It's a computer magazine devoted to readers who want to know more about the world. WIRED uncovers the most surprising and resonant stories about the people, companies, technologies and ideas that are transforming our lives. Whether it's technology...business...global politics...new media...arts and culture...design...or the best new products, WIRED is there, on the front lines of the 21st Century.

